American Behavioral Scientist

Special Issue Title: New Perspectives on the Ethics of International Migration
Guest Editors: Ricard Zapata-Barrero, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain, and Antoine Pécoud, University of Paris 7 UNESCO, Paris, France

Introduction
New Perspectives on the Ethics of International Migration 1159
Ricard Zapata-Barrero and Antoine Pécoud

Articles
Moral, Ethical, and Realist Dilemmas of Transnational Governance of Migration 1165
Veit Bader

European Migration Governance: From “Anything Goes” to the Need for an Ethical Code 1183
Ricard Zapata-Barrero

Why Not the Whole World? Ethical Dilemmas of Immigration Policy 1204
Aristide R. Zolberg

Borders as a Space of Interaction: An Account of Special State Obligations to Irregular Immigrants 1223
Marit Hovdal-Moan

Where’s the Harm in That? Immigration Enforcement, Trafficking, and the Protection of Migrants’ Rights 1241
Bridget Anderson

Overcoming the Ethical Dilemmas of Skilled Migration? An Analysis of International Narratives on the “Brain Drain” 1258
Antonina Levatino and Antoine Pécoud

The Human Rights of Migrant Workers: Why Do So Few Countries Care? 1277
Martin Ruhs